

WVQ Meeting Minutes

March 16, 2022, 10 am

- Meeting was opened at 10am by President Peggy Gelbrich.
 - There was a moment of silence for Lynette Horn.
 - Coffee Creek Quilters have not met since March 2020. They have an abundance of fabric and 52 sewing machines. They are looking for organizations that may be able to use the sewing machines. Contact Peggy Gelbrich.

- Committee Reports
 - Membership: A shirt order will be placed in late March.
 - Compassion Quilts: The Committee needs donations of duffle bags or back packs. Members have made numerous "To Go Bags".
 - Programs:
 - March 19 – Robin O'Neil's "Stepladder" workshop at Dayton First Baptist Church, there are spaces available for the workshop.
 - April 20, a trunk show and quilting journey presented by guild member Gladys Janssen.
 - May 18, Kelly Cole, Vintage Linens used in Quilts.

- Presentation by Robin O'Neil: Robin showed approximately 15 quilts she has designed. She makes quilts without patterns or templates or rulers or seam guides. Surprise is a big part of the fun! She frequently makes baby quilts but is most partial to making things king size. AND she almost always hand quilts with red thread.

- Peggy thanked Sally Eagleman for her excellent job as a founding member and Treasurer for WVQ. Sally will be missed by WVQ.

- Stash Table Winners: Susan Smoyer, Sharon Nistler X 3 and Sande Ely,

- Show & Tell: Seventeen quilts were shown by members and there were many Compassion Quilts shown.

Meeting adjourned at 11:45 AM
